

MONTERONE

Located in Rome's "theatre-land" between the world famous Pantheon and Teatro Argentina, "Monterone" is not only the ideal choice for those in town on theatre business. It is also a highly appropriate choice for visitors keen to experience and explore the Eternal City. A smart second-floor apartment close to colorful Piazza Campo dei Fiori (with its excellent fruit, vegetable and flower market), "Monterone" is a fifteen-minute walk from the ancient Roman Forum itself and just around the corner from Café St. Eustacchio, renowned to have the best espresso and cappuccino coffee in the whole of Italy! Elegantly decorated and comfortably appointed throughout, guests will not fail to enjoy the property's exquisite selection of oil paintings - many dating back to the 17th century. "Monterone" has both a lift and TV. The property is rectilinear in design: a spacious corridor with doors leading off to its rooms. The front door gives onto a small entrance hall followed by the corridor. The first door on the left is a large well-equipped kitchen with dining table. Further along the corridor on the right, the sumptuously attractive and comfortable living room has two sofas and a wide screen TV. One double bedroom on the left stands next door to its bathroom which has a large with tub. Next is the master bedroom - again with its own bathroom, this time with shower. Maid Service twice a week; Linen Change: once a week; Satellite TV; Dishwasher; Washing Machine
