

SALVIATI C

Salviati C. is an apartment located inside Palazzo Salviati, which was built in the 15th century. This building stands in the heart of one of the most characteristic neighborhoods of Florence, Santa Croce. The palace represents the typical example of Florentine late medieval art. The wonderful stairway in "pietra serena" and the 15th century frescoes along with the spectacular communal terrace give the chance to see an amazing and complete view of Florence. Located on the 2nd floor of this magnificent 15th century palace, this charming apartment consists of a very generous and well-furnished living-room with dining area, the kitchen, a study area with pull-out sofa bed, and a bathroom with shower. On the second level is the master bedroom in the loft, including a bathroom with bath-tub set in marble. All rooms are very bright, with wooden floors and coffered ceilings. Maid Service and Linen change available on request; satellite TV and DVD; Telephone; Dishwasher; Washing Machine
