

TCC0004 – Bargino Castle

The Castle is a beautiful example of a Medieval Tuscan castle, set on a panoramic hill in the Chianti Classico area. Built by the Buondelmonti family on the foundations of a 10th century Roman settlement, the castle was converted to a villa in the 15th century. The Castle, now over 1000 years old, was recently restored by its present owners and transformed into a luxury holiday residence. Inside its fortified walls, guests can relax under the poolside loggia, or at the pool that is surrounded by a beautiful garden and offers a view over the whole valley and surrounding hills. The Castle can host 23 people, 19 in the main building and 4 in the guardian house, an independent apartment that was recently restored.
