

TMA0001 – MAGONA CASTLE

Built at the beginning of the 16th century, the Castle became the residence of many Tuscan Grand Dukes including the last Grand Duke of Tuscany, Leopold II, in the 18th century. In the 19th century the Castle passed into the hands of the Merciai family who restored it and transformed it into a Historical Residence. Today the Castle is one of the most important monuments in the "Val di Cornia" (Cornia Valley). The Castle is located between the famous cities of Siena and Lucca, in a triangle of wine production of the highest level including Sassicaia and Ornellaia. The Castle offers its guests an indoor and outdoor dining room, the living room, bar-lounge and the pool. The Castle's guests have the opportunity to participate in an aristocratic 16th-century experience, but with all comforts of contemporary life. The Castle is over 900 sq meters. Its architecture, furnishings and decor are of late 16th century noble Tuscan style. Ground floor: Entrance hall decorated with original and antique paintings, 3 sitting rooms, reading room with Internet access, bar/lounge room with fireplace, TV room with comfortable furniture, a fireplace and Satellite TV, dining room with frescoes and original ceramics. Upper floor: There are 2 stairways that lead to the upper floor. The bedrooms are found on the upper floor where they offer beautiful views of the surrounding countryside. They all have en-suite bathrooms and have their own decorative theme. The bedrooms are equipped with mini-bars, air conditioning, Satellite TV, phone with Internet access and safe. They are decorated with antique furniture, hand-decorated ceilings, frescoes and many precious objects. The kitchen is for the exclusive use of the Castle staff. All linens are included and are changed twice weekly, on Wednesday and Saturday. The garden is enclosed by a fence. There is a beautiful rose garden that has comfortable chairs and sofas. The Castle is at the end of a tree-lined road. The impressive gate opens onto the front garden area where there is private parking. There is a patio with tables, chairs and umbrellas – it is an ideal place for breakfasts or dinners in the warm months and during the beautiful spring days. The private pool is found through a small gate at the end of the garden, 20 meters from the Castle. There is a Jacuzzi, gym equipment, a changing room and a toilet. The pool is open from mid-May through September.

The Castle sleeps 20+ 2 and has 11 bathrooms
